

It is with immense sadness that AcuMedic, chinalife, CMIR and the Mei family announce the tragic news that Professor Man Fong Mei passed away on 8 January 2014. A pioneer in Chinese Medicine and East West integration, a philosopher, a physicist and a poet. He will be sorely missed by all those who he touched with his inspiration and positive energy. Funeral arrangements shall be announced in due course. Any messages of condolence can be sent to the address below. Everyone at AcuMedic, CMIR and chinalife will strive hard to continue Professor Mei's lifework. More details and a longer announcement will be made shortly.
